This 46 +/- acre rolling parcel is home to 'Thunderhead Ranch' in the rural community of Creston. Perched on a hilltop and nestled among beautiful oak-studded acres lies this magnificent equestrian ranch and private retreat designed in the traditional California Ranch Vaquero style. The property's gated and paved road takes you along rolling hills of indigenous oaks and digger pines surrounded by abundant wildlife, native vegetation, lakes with natural waterways as you gain elevation and opens onto a true piece of authentic California. Situated on a knoll, the property backs up to large ranches and hundreds of acres of open range with views abound in all directions.

This private ranch is designed for training and conditioning event horses on all terrains and hazards including the shallow end of the lake perfect for multiple jumps. As a silent retreat in the middle of nature, the town of Creston is just 3 miles down the road with conveniences of the country market, post office, steakhouse, saloon, school, church and western store. The public library and annual Creston rodeo are places of gatherings for all ages.
